

Fort Washington Infant Toddler Family Newsletter March 2020

Director's Corner

This month we will emphasize literacy with Dr. Seuss' birthday and Read Across America and World storytelling day. If you'd like to be a guest reader this month, please get in touch with Katie or Bernie to choose a good time to come visit and read your child's favorite story!

In honor of Dr. Seuss' birthday, Monday March 2nd, we'll be celebrating "Seussville" style all week long! The week begins with a wacky birthday celebration. Tuesday we'll have crazy sock day. Wednesday wear a wacky outfit. Thursday is backwards day. Friday will be pajama day. Feel free to share your favorite Dr Seuss books this week also!

Saint Patrick's Day Celebrations

Wear your green on March 17th to celebrate St. Patrick's Day. We'll see if the leprechaun visits the center with some mischief and fun treats.

Winter Family Conferences

Conferences will be offered to all families the week of March 16-20. If you would like to meet with your child's teacher(s) about his/her progress, please complete the sign off and return it with convenient times to meet. We will talk with you further to schedule a good time during this week.

Family Questionnaire Feedback

Thank you for taking the time to complete the family questionnaires- your feedback plays an important role in our goal setting for the upcoming year. We appreciate hearing what you think we do well, and also ways we can improve our services to families. As you know, we are in the beginning stages of implementing our new curriculum and assessment tools. This is one area that we know will improve with time and training, but if there are things you'd like to see on your child's daily sheet or progress reports- please ask

Gertrude Hawk Fundraiser
