

At our Abington center, students explored music and art by using a paint brush with bells attached create a picture and listen to the sounds it created!

Students in our Lansdale preschool practiced identifying letters and sounds.

Curriculum Corner

The school year has started, and the playing and learning are in full swing! So far, students have explored the Arts, practiced recognizing letters and their sounds, and learned about managing difficult emotions.

Students read the book Wemberly Worried and learned about how to manage challenging feelings and emotions, as well as about making friends.
